

GRAND BALL

LAST NIGHT AT THE OPERA HOUSE A GREAT SUCCESS.

LARGE GATHERING

Mesdames N. Jaffa, H. Jaffa, Parker Earle, G. A. Richardson, H. R. Morrow and K. B. McGaffey Receive the Guests in a Charming Manner.

The ball last night at the opera house was one of the largest social functions that has ever been given in Roswell. The ball was given by Mesdames Nathan Jaffa, Harry Jaffa, G. A. Richardson, K. B. McGaffey, and Parker Earle. Four hundred and seventy invitations were sent out and there were about half that number present. As the guests arrived they were met at the door by Mesdames G. A. Richardson, N. Jaffa, H. Jaffa and H. R. Morrow, who escorted them to the middle of the room where they were presented to the hostesses who made them at once feel at home.

The room was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums, and the Mexican orchestra was hidden behind a large weeping willow in the southwest corner of the room. There were a large number of Navajo blankets on the seats which were suggestive of comfort and ease. Chicken salad, wafers, olives and coffee were served on the stage. The program is given herewith:

MARRIAGE ANNIVERSARY.

Mrs. W. N. Baldwin Entertains The Entre Nous Club and Her Friends.

The home of Mrs. W. N. Baldwin on South Spring River avenue yesterday afternoon was the scene of a pleasant entertainment. It was the 13th anniversary of Mrs. Baldwin's marriage and she entertained the Entre Nous club of which she is a member and a number of her friends who are not members of the club. The guests arrived at 2:30 o'clock and were royally entertained until 5 o'clock by Mrs. Baldwin and her sister, Miss Smythe, and Miss Best, who assisted her in receiving. Progressive peanut game was indulged in and the idea was to see who could get the greatest number of peanuts on a bat pin in a certain length of time. Mrs. Phil Helmig won the first prize, a hand painted, heart shaped powder box. Mrs. Poe came second and won a handsome piece of statu ry.

The members of the club presented Mrs. Baldwin with a very handsome cut glass bon bon dish. The dining room was decorated and the color scheme was green and yellow. The table looked perfectly beautiful and the following menu was served:

Chicken salad, fish croquettes, roasted almonds, olives, wafers, ice cream, cake, coffee and chocolate punch.

Mesdames Charles and Patterson of the club were unable to Hearst Party Requests Hon. Jerry Simpson to Say that the Pecos Valley Was the Finest Country They Had Seen.

Hon. Jerry Simpson, who went with the Hearst party as far as Amarillo, says they treated him royally and wanted him to go as far as Chicago and told him they would give him a pass back to this city. He says they all requested him to say to the Roswell people that the Pecos Valley was the finest country they had seen.

Hobson, Haynes & Ray put five boxes apples, one box peaches, one big roll celery, two large watermelons, two baskets of tomatoes and two boxes of very large chile peppers on the train for the party.
